There are a series of events planned by the SDSU community during Hispanic / Latinx Heritage Month as well as throughout the Fall semester. We encourage students, staff and faculty to join these important conversations and exciting opportunities. Below you will find further details for each event.

This list can also be found at: https://diversity.sdsu.edu/initiatives/hsi-affairs
Wednesday, 9/16 at 3pm-4:30pm: Latinx Resource Center Open House

Come meet the Latinx Resource Center team, learn about programs and services this Fall semester and connect with other Latinx students while building community! Event will be bilingual. For questions, contact us at: latinxresourcecenter@sdsu.edu

Zoom Link: https://SDSU.zoom.us/j/91514709984 | IG @SDSULRC

Thursdays, 9/17 at 3-4:15pm: Launch of En Confianza @SDSU

A support group for Latinx, Chicanx, and Hispanic students where you’ll find support and community as we learn how to face challenges like culture shock, and belonging to two or more cultures, and adjusting to campus life. The group is in Spanglish, and is a collaboration between Latinx Resource Center and Counseling & Psychological Services.

Zoom Link: https://sdsu-pi.zoom.us/j/96654471224
Meeting ID: 966 5447 1224

Thursdays, 9/17 at 7-8pm: Launch of Joteria Sin Fronteras

A support group centered around the intersecting identities of Latinx students who identify as LGBTQIA+. Group meetings are a place to be ourselves without limits, a space where community can come together to talk about issues that we face on-and-off campus, share, plan events, and have fun!

This is a collaboration between LRC and Pride Center.

Zoom Link: https://SDSU.zoom.us/j/92451752089
Meeting ID: 924 5175 2089
SEPTEMBER 19, 7:00 PM - A CRUSHING LOVE: CHICANAS, MOTHERHOOD, AND ACTIVISM

Film screening/Q & A with pioneering Chicana feminist director Sylvia Morales moderated by Dr. Maria Ibarra. Hosted by the 27th Virtual San Diego Latino Film Festival in collaboration with the Department of Chicana and Chicano Studies.

To access this program, purchase your tickets here: https://sdlff2020.eventive.org/schedule

SEPTEMBER 21, 8:45 PM - THE DEVIL NEVER SLEEPS

Film screening/Q & A with internationally recognized feminist director Lourdes Portillo moderated by Dr. Norma Iglesias Prieto. Hosted by the 27th Virtual San Diego Latino Film Festival in collaboration with the Department of Chicana and Chicano Studies.

To access this program, purchase your tickets here: https://sdlff2020.eventive.org/schedule

WEDNESDAY, 9/23 AT 12-1:30PM - LH2020

KEYNOTE ALAN PELAEZ LOPEZ - "BEYOND CITIZENSHIP: INTERSECTIONAL POLITICS, CARE, AND ABOLITION"

Thorough poetry and dialogue, Alan shares lessons as a formerly undocumented Black migrant from the Zapotec community of Oaxaca, México. Their keynote bridges the #BlackLivesMatter movement with the immigrant rights movement to discuss the limits of citizenship. Event will be in English. Organized by Latinx Resource Center. For questions, contact latinxresourcecenter@sdsu.edu

Zoom link: https://SDSU.zoom.us/j/92802816320 | IG @SDSULRC
THURSDAY, 9/24 AT 3-4:00PM - LATINX HERITAGE 2020: WORKSHOP “COMO ME IDENTIFICO?” (HOW DO I IDENTIFY?)

Our Latin American community exists in a myriad of terminologies such as Latina/o/x/e, Chicana/o/x, Hispanic y mas. We will break down the context of some of these common terms, and through dialogue acknowledge the diversity within our Latinx community. Event will be in Spanish & English. Organized by Latinx Resource Center.

For questions, contact latinxresourcecenter@sdsu.edu

Zoom Link: https://SDSU.zoom.us/j/94388602207 | IG @SDSULRC

SEPTEMBER 28, 2020 9AM. DISTINGUISHED BRAZILIAN SCHOLAR PANEL: RACISM, SOCIAL EXCLUSION AND THE BURDEN OF SUBSTANCE USE ON BLACK BRAZILIANS

This panel will bring together three distinguished research scholars from Brazil’s Oswaldo Cruz Foundation - FIOCRUZ in Rio de Janeiro and Getúlio Vargas Foundation, São Paulo Brazil to discuss the historical and present day context of racism against persons of African heritage in Brazil, including the sociological construction of racism in Brazil and resulting social exclusion and inequalities; the use of the race/color indicators in epidemiological studies in Brazil; and the impact of substance use among socially-excluded communities in Brazil. Hosted by: the School of Social Work, the Joint Doctoral Program on Interdisciplinary Research on Substance Use, and the Behner Stiefel Center for Brazilian Studies.

Zoom Meeting: https://SDSU.zoom.us/j/95853852660?pwd=ZlBNbGJiS2tub3ZJMkVnS1F3ejN2QT09
Facebook: @sdsuprogramonbrazil
Instagram: @sdsu_brazil
SEPTEMBER 1-October 15 (Asynchronous)
SDSU Brazilian Film Series: Praça Paris
With Exclusive Q&A with Filmmaker, Lúcia Murat

The SDSU Brazilian Film Series is entering its second year, now in a virtual format.
Enjoy a free monthly Brazilian film from the comfort of home and exclusive content produced by the Behner Stiefel Center for Brazilian Studies.
Hosted by the Behner Stiefel Center for Brazilian Studies

Watch: https://sdsubrazilianfilm.eventive.org/
Facebook: @sdsuprogramonbrazil
Instagram: @sdsu_brazil

WEDNESDAY, 9/30 AT 12-1:30PM - LATINX HERITAGE 2020: BOMBA: AFRO PUERTO RICAN LANGUAGE OF RESISTANCE

Through an engaging and interactive discussion and live performance, Ivelisse will share with us the power of Bomba, its historical context and connection to rebellion and resistance dating to the times of enslavement of Tainos and Africans in Puerto Rico. Event will be in Spanish & English. Organized by Latinx Resource Center. For questions, contact latinxresourcecenter@sdsu.edu

Zoom Link: https://SDSU.zoom.us/j/91260780262 | IG eSDSULRC

SEPTEMBER 30, 2020 3:00PM - HEALTH LECTURE SERIES: THE SEMIOTICS OF COVID-19 THROUGH THE EYES OF A CLINICIAN: PERSPECTIVES ON THE PANDEMIC IN BRAZIL AND THE UNITED STATES

A virtual lecture by Professor Carlos Alberto Von Muhlen, MD, PhD.
Hosted by the Behner Stiefel Center for Brazilian Studies.

Zoom Webinar: https://SDSU.zoom.us/s/93053565652
Facebook: @sdsuprogramonbrazil | Instagram: @sdsu_brazil
THURSDAY, 10/1 THROUGH 10/15 - AFRO-LATINX AT SDSU PHOTOSERIES

The Center for Intercultural Relations in collaboration with the Latinx Resource Center will be highlighting and celebrating the Afro-Latinx community at SDSU during Latinx Heritage Month. This photo campaign, inspired by the work of Walter Thompson-Hernández’ “The Blaxicans Of Los Angeles”, will be featured on social media. Folks who identify as Afro-Latinx, Afro-Indigenous, and/or Black of Latin American descent and want to participate can email: interculturalrelations@sdsu.edu

IG: @SDSU_CIR | IG: @SDSULRC

SEPTEMBER 30TH, 5:00-6:30 PM
REMEMBERING/DISMEMBERING MONUMENTS AND THE POLITICS OF IDENTITY

Lecture by Dr. Michael Trujillo, Department of American Studies and Chicano Studies Program, University of New Mexico. Sponsored by the Department of Chicana and Chicano Studies and made possible through CAL/IRA funds. Please visit CCS Events Page for zoom link on day of program: https://aztlan.sdsu.edu/news-and-events

OCTOBER 1 - OCTOBER 31 (ASYNCHRONOUS)
SDSU BRAZILIAN FILM SERIES: QUEEN OF LAPA WITH EXCLUSIVE Q&A WITH FILMMAKERS CAROLINA MONNERAT AND TEDDY COLLATOS

The SDSU Brazilian Film Series is entering its second year, now in a virtual format. Enjoy a free monthly Brazilian film from the comfort of home and exclusive content produced by the Behner Stiefel Center for Brazilian Studies. Hosted by the Behner Stiefel Center for Brazilian Studies

Watch: https://sdsubrazilianfilm.eventive.org/
Facebook: @sdsuprogramonbrazil | Instagram: @sdsu_brazil

THURSDAY, 10/1 THROUGH 10/15 - AFRO-LATINX AT SDSU PHOTOSERIES
OCTOBER 5, 12PM - INDIGENOUS WOMEN AND SUSTAINABILITY IN THE BRAZILIAN AMAZON: POLICY AND POLITICS FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

Part one of a three-part lecture series looking at indigenous women’s activism and challenges in the Brazilian Amazon. Co-hosted by Nature and Culture International, Projeto Bem Viver, the Behner Stiefel Center for Brazilian Studies, Native American Studies.

Zoom Webinar: https://SDSU.zoom.us/j/93034862502
Facebook: @sdsuproGramonBrazil | Instagram: @sdsu_brazil

TUESDAY, 10/06 AT 5-6:30PM - LATINX HERITAGE 2020: HIP HOP, ARTE, Y DECOLONIZACION CON BOCAFLOJA

Virtual concert con hip hop-ero, poet, spoken word artist y scholar, Bocafloja. Come for his lyrical pieces that cover various social issues including institutional racism and decolonization and stay for an intimate dialogue about his interdisciplinary work. Event will be in Spanglish. Organized by Latinx Resource Center. For questions, you can contact latinxresourcecenter@sdsu.edu

Zoom Link: https://SDSU.zoom.us/j/98474804340 | IG eSDSULRC

OCTOBER 7, 4:30PM. RACE, RACISM, AND RESISTANCE IN LATIN AMERICA: MEXICO

Part one of this three-part lecture series examining race, racism and resistance in Latin America looks at struggles against racism in Mexico. Hosted by the Center for Latin American Studies and the Behner Stiefel Center for Brazilian Studies.

Zoom Webinar: https://SDSU.zoom.us/s/95127438729
Facebook: @sdsuproGramonBrazil | Instagram: @sdsu_brazil
OCTOBER 8, 4:00-5:15 PM - HOW TRUMP TALKS ABOUT LATINXS AND MEXICO

Lecture by Dr. Norma Mendoza-Denton, University of California Los Angeles, Department of Anthropology. Program hosted by the Department of Linguistics and Asian/Middle Eastern Languages in collaboration with the Department of Chicana and Chicano Studies. Made possible through CAL/IRA funds. Please visit CCS Events Page for zoom link on day of program: https://aztlan.sdsu.edu/news-and-events

FRIDAY, 10/9 11:30 - 1PM - SDSU LATINA NETWORK VIRTUAL LUNCHEON "ACTIVISM THROUGH ART"

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Norma Iglesias - Prieto, Ph.D, Dept. of Chicana/o Studies | Art & Activism Panel | Annual scholarship fundraiser. $25 per person. 100% will go to a scholarship fund to be awarded to a deserving SDSU student. Organized by SDSU ERG Latina Network. REGISTER HERE. Contact Event Chair: Karla Ramirez, ramirez@sdsu.edu for more details IG @sdsulatinanetwork. *Event will be in Spanglish. Zoom Link and/or Meeting ID: To be sent after event payment received

OCTOBER 12, 12PM. INDIGENOUS WOMEN AND SUSTAINABILITY IN THE BRAZILIAN AMAZON: CLIMATE CHALLENGES AND TERRITORIAL PROTECTION

Part two of a three-part lecture series looking at indigenous women’s activism and challenges in the Brazilian Amazon. Co-Hosted by Nature and Culture International, Projeto Bem Viver, the Behner Stiefel Center for Brazilian Studies, Native American Studies. Zoom Webinar: https://SDSU.zoom.us/j/93034862502 Facebook: @sdsuprogramonbrazil | Instagram: @sdsu_brazil
THURSDAY, 10/15 AT 5:30-7PM
LATINX HERITAGE 2020:
PACHANGA CON DJ SIZZLE

Ven a pachangear con Latinx Resource Center y DJ Sizzle Fastastic (co-founder of Cumbiaton). Join the end of Latinx Heritage 2020 Celebration, in joy and with community! There will be an opportunity drawing, virtual vendor table highlighting SDSU artists and fun surprises! Event will be in Spanglish, Spanish and English. For questions contact: latinxresourcecenter@sdsu.edu
Zoom Link: https://SDSU.zoom.us/j/95478839573  |  IG @SDSULRC

OCTOBER 19, 2:00-3:00 PM.
VULNERABILITY AND COVID 19: MIGRANTS ON THE U.S.-MEXICO BORDER

Lecture by Soraya Vazquez, Director of NGO “Families Belong Together” (Tijuana). Sponsored by the Department of Chicana and Chicano Studies.

Please visit CCS Events Page for zoom link on day of program:
https://aztlan.sdsu.edu/news-and-events

OCTOBER 21, 4:30PM. RACE, RACISM, AND RESISTANCE IN LATIN AMERICA: COLOMBIA

Part two of this three-part lecture series examining race, racism and resistance in Latin America looks at resilience and hope in Colombia. Hosted by the Center for Latin American Studies and the Behner Stiefel Center for Brazilian Studies.

Zoom Webinar: https://SDSU.zoom.us/s/95127438729
Facebook: @sdsuprogramonbrazil  |  Instagram: @sdsu_brazil
OCTOBER 26, 2:00-3:00 PM. PHOTO REPORTING: MIGRANT CARAVANS AND THE U.S.-MEXICO BORDER

Lecture by Guillermo Arias, Independent photojournalist. Sponsored by the Department of Chicana and Chicano Studies. Please visit CCS Events Page for zoom link on day of program: https://aztlan.sdsu.edu/news-and-events

OCTOBER 26, 12PM-INDIGENOUS WOMEN AND SUSTAINABILITY IN THE BRAZILIAN AMAZON: COVID-19 IN THE CONTEXT OF THE BRAZILIAN AMAZON

Part three of a three-part lecture series looking at indigenous women’s activism and challenges in the Brazilian Amazon. Co-Hosted by Nature and Culture International, Projeto Bem Viver, the Behner Stiefel Center for Brazilian Studies, Native American Studies.

Zoom Webinar: https://SDSU.zoom.us/j/93034862502
Facebook: @sdsuprogramonbrazil | Instagram: @sdsu_brazil

OCTOBER 28, 6:30-9:00 PM
SINGING OUR WAY TO FREEDOM

Film screening/Q&A with Director Paul Espinoza and Dr. Ana Celia Zentella, UC San Diego; Moderated by Dr. Maria Ibarra and Dr. Alda Blanco. Hosted by The College of Education and the Language Acquisition Resource Center (LARC) as part of LARC FFuN series and co-sponsored by the Department of Chicana and Chicano Studies and the Department of Spanish and Portuguese. Please visit CCS Events Page for zoom link on day of program: https://aztlan.sdsu.edu/news-and-events
NOVEMBER 1 - NOVEMBER 30
(ASYNCHRONOUS) - SDSU BRAZILIAN FILM SERIES: IN THE HEART OF THE WORLD WITH EXCLUSIVE Q&A WITH FILMMAKERS MAURÍLIO MARTINS AND GABRIEL MARTINS

The SDSU Brazilian Film Series is entering its second year, now in a virtual format. Enjoy a free monthly Brazilian film from the comfort of home and exclusive content produced by the Behner Stiefel Center for Brazilian Studies. Hosted by the Behner Stiefel Center for Brazilian Studies

Watch: https://sdsubrazilianfilm.eventive.org
Facebook: @sdsuprogramonbrazil  |  Instagram: @sdsu_brazil

NOVEMBER 2, 2:00-3:15PM
DUELO/LUTO: LAS ALTERIDADES EN TIEMPOS DE COVID-19; GRIEF/MOURNING: OTHERNESS IN TIMES OF COVID-19

Annual Day of the Dead Commemoration. In honor of Mexican immigrants in the U.S. as well as indigenous communities, public health workers, and sex workers in Brazil.

Program moderated by Dr. Norma Iglesias Prieto in collaboration with Dr. Jose Miguel Nieto Olivar and Dr. Cristiane da Silva Cabral from the College of Public Health, University of Sao Paulo, Brazil. English/Spanish/Portuguese. Sponsored by the Department of Chicana and Chicano Studies. Please visit CCS Events Page for zoom link on day of program: https://aztlan.sdsu.edu/news-and-events

NOVEMBER 10, 9:30-10:45 AM.
ON THE UNDERGROUND RAILROAD: BLACK FLIGHT & MEXICAN FREEDOM DESTINATIONS

Lecture by Maria Esther Hammack, Doctoral candidate in History at UT Austin Mellon ACLS Dissertation Completions Fellow, 2020-2021. Moderated by Dr. Victoria González-Rivera. Sponsored by the Department of Chicana and Chicano Studies and made possible through CAL/IRA funds.

Please visit CCS Events Page for zoom link on day of program: https://aztlan.sdsu.edu/news-and-events
November 18, 4:30PM. Race, Racism, and Resistance in Latin America: Brazil
Part one of this three-part lecture series examining race, racism and resistance in Latin America looks at activism and the role of social media organizing in Brazil. Hosted by the Center for Latin American Studies and the Behner Stiefel Center for Brazilian Studies.
Zoom Webinar: https://SDSU.zoom.us/s/95127438729
Facebook: @sdsuprogramonbrazil | Instagram: @sdsu_brazil

November 23, 2:00-3:15 PM.
Chicano/a/x Printmaking: Making Prints and Making History
Lecture and art catalog release by lead curator of CCS 50th anniversary art exhibit, Dr. Norma Iglesias Prieto. Sponsored by the Department of Chicana and Chicano Studies.
Please visit CCS Events Page for zoom link on day of program: https://aztlan.sdsu.edu/news-and-events

November 30, 10:00AM - The Paulo Freire Lecture on Education and Social Transformation: Social Justice in Applied Linguistics: Critical Perspectives on Language Teaching, Research, and Civic Engagement
The inaugural Paulo Freire Lecture on Education and Social Transformation will be delivered by Dr. Uju Anya (Penn State University). The presentation shows how academically and politically-informed language professionals can shape education and policymaking. It also addresses the key role social media can play in combating linguistic misinformation and intolerance. Hosted by the College of Education and the Behner Stiefel Center for Brazilian Studies.
Zoom Webinar: https://SDSU.zoom.us/s/98000468839
Facebook: @sdsuprogramonbrazil | Instagram: @sdsu_brazil
For more information, please visit:
https://diversity.sdsu.edu/initiatives/hsi-affairs